

If the building were to be evacuated for any reason, staff should go to the southeast corner of the main parking lot closest to the intersection of Vaughn Street and Arapahoe Road (see attached map) so that directors can verify that everyone has left the building.

