Purpose of Rezoning

A rezoning application is the first step in establishing land uses and siting restrictions for a parcel of land. The uses and siting restrictions permitted by the zone district set the general parameters with which the development must comply. The uses, minimums and maximums provided in the Land Development Code (LDC) will be reviewed at the site plan stage to further determine the appropriateness for the particular site and neighborhood. Once a rezoning has been approved a site plan which complies with the terms, conditions and requirements of the approved zone district must be submitted and approved prior to the issuance of building permits for improvements to any site or sites within the project covered by the rezoning.
